READING YOUR INITIAL LETTER WHY IS IT IMPORTANT?

If you have engaged our firm to act for you, we write a letter to you. That letter confirms our engagement, along with particulars of your matter. It will also include our advice and enclose documents that we need you to complete or sign.

It is important to read the letters and emails thoroughly throughout your matter.

If you are unsure of any of the information contained in our letters, we are more than happy to guide you through them.

Before You Make a Property Decision, Know What It's Worth
Whether you're selling, settling, or planning ahead—start with clarity.

When it comes to property, having an accurate understanding of value is often the first and most important step—especially when making decisions around selling, legal matters, or future planning.

Market conditions can shift, and property values don't always align with expectations. Having a clear starting point can help you make more informed and confident decisions.

I've made this simple by offering a quick, no-obligation price estimate tool. By scanning the QR code below, you can get an instant snapshot of where your property sits in today's market.

If you'd like a more accurate and personalised appraisal, I'm always happy to assist.

Regards,

Gurpreet Singh
